GLOBAL OUTREACH

HEAR THEIR STORIES

Tahmina Martelly is a Muslim-background Christian who was born in Dhaka, Bangladesh. After fleeing Dhaka in the middle of the night in fear for their lives, her family resettled in Yemen before Tahmina was allowed entry into the United States. Once in America, Tahmina became a Christian, and was disowned by her family. She now works as the Programs Manager for World Relief Seattle. To hear her story, and the stories of Soumya Sista and Nik Ripken, join us Saturday, October 28th for Insanity Dinner. To register, go online to the church's website, or email meganm@chccbw.org.
